THE SOUTHERNERS
A long story of the post-Reconstruction period in Atlanta, Georgia. "The Southerners" by Edna Lee, covers a period of time from the early 1900's up to World war I.
The battle lines are more or less drawn between the old aristocratic society families of Atlanta and the members of the new industrial group coming from outside or rising from the masses. There is

This book is good in spots, sometimes whole sections, but, at least to this reader, there are times when it reads like a "soap opera."
