|  Vice Versa Collected & Neglected Poems By Rosaline Tafler Rosaline Tafler, affectionately known as "Grindina Rose," was born in Montreal on October 7, 1923, to Annie and Myer Tafler. The youngest of four children, Rosaline wrote her first poem at the age of eight and never looked back. She married Julian Marinoff in 1976, and raised a family in Montreal. Her eldest son is philosopher and author Lou Marinoff, who credits her for his literary formation. Her poems are expressions of wit and wisdom. She is also a lifetime contract bridge master, and has lately taken up painting. Now in her ninety-fifth year, Grindina Rose is the resident "poet laureate" of the Donald Bertram Maimonides Centre, and is much beloved by family, friends, and staff. | January 2018 Publication and launch of Vice Versa Collected and Neglected Poems By Rosaline Tafler My mother, at age 94! Newspaper notice Video of launch Get book here |
